Grand Targhee's 7th Annual Cardboard Box Derby Highlights Closing Weekend

Grand Targhee Resort celebrates a successful winter season with closing festivities scheduled for its final weekend April 14th & 15th. As part of the celebration, the resort will host the 7th Annual Grand Targhee Cardboard Box Derby on Saturday, April 14th. Teams not to exceed six members will test their creativity and ingenuity by constructing a cardboard craft able to maneuver the ski hill carrying all team members (with parts intact). The rules are simple: crafts must be constructed solely of cardboard, paper, glue, tape, and string. All participants must wear a manufacturer made helmet. Registration is from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. in the main plaza with race time slated for 1:00 p.m. on Big Horn. Prizes will be awarded for: 1) best overall 2) best spirit & attitude, and 3) best construction/ engineering. Prizes are being provided by the following event sponsors: Falls Printing, 94.9 Radio/Idaho Falls, Teton Aviation Warbirds Café, Habitat, Silver Star Communications, Teton Valley Hospital and Surgicenter and Grand Teton Brewing Company.

An award ceremony will take place on the main plaza following the event with live music provided by Chan-man Roots Reggae Band Saturday night in the Trap Bar from 3:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. For a complete listing of Cardboard Box rules and regulations, please visit www.grandtarghee.com.
