Grand Targhee Resort Celebrates the 4th of July with The 12th Annual WYDAHO Mountain Bike Race

Grand Targhee Resort is proud to host a patriotic celebration this 4th of July with highlights to include the 12th Annual WYDAHO Mountain Bike Race taking place on Wednesday, July 4th. This event takes place in conjunction with the Teton Valley Summer Festival making Grand Targhee the ideal Independence Day destination for outdoor enthusiasts and family members of all ages.

Grand Targhee's 12th Annual WYDAHO Mountain Bike Race registration is $30 and sign up is from 8:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. in the grassy plaza area with the race starting at 10:00 a.m.. With special help from Title Sponsor, Peaked Sports, this event takes place on a cross-country circuit course with separate categories and age divisions for kids, beginners, intermediate and experts. The circuit lengths are 21 miles for expert, 14 miles for intermediate, 7 miles for beginner and a special kids loop for the kids 6-12 years old. All participants will receive a t-shirt, with a post-race raffle to include such prizes as Season Passes to Grand Targhee Resort, Targhee Fest and Bluegrass Festival tickets and gear from Peaked Sports. All racers must wear an approved helmet and participants 18 years and younger must have a written consent from a parent or legal guardian (forms can be downloaded at www.grandtarghee.com).

Grand Targhee Resort is the ideal "Base Camp" for any vacation to Yellowstone or Grand Teton National Parks. Located in the Heart of the Tetons, Grand Targhee offers numerous ongoing summer activities such as hiking, biking, climbing wall, ropes course, geocaching, scenic chairlift rides, disc golf, spa treatments, horseback riding and more! For information on all resort services or to make reservations, please contact 1-800-TARGHEE (locally at 353-2300) or visit www.grandtarghee.com.
